Further amend the Public Health Acts relating to Ireland.

A.D. 1911.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 5 1.—(1) Any urban district council in Ireland may, in addition to any existing powers, make byelaws providing for the inspection of all meat intended to be sold within the urban district for human consumption, and prohibiting the sale of meat within the urban district for human consumption except after inspection in accordance with the byelaws. Power to urban councils to make byelaws as to sale of meat in urban districts.
- 10 (2) The provisions of sections two hundred and nineteen to two hundred and twenty-three of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, relative to byelaws shall apply to every byelaw made under this Act as they apply to byelaws made under that Act.
- 15 2. This Act shall be read and construed with the Public Health (Ireland) Acts, 1878 to 1907, and may be cited as the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1911.
